

STRESS QUIZ

Because everyone reacts to stress in his or her own way, no one stress test can give you a complete diagnosis of your stress levels. This is intended to give you an overview only. Answer yes, even if only part of a question applies to you.

FIVE FINGER PEACE EXERCISE

1. Touching your thumb to your index finger, travel back to a time when you felt a healthy exhaustion after exerting yourself physically, such as cleaning house, mowing the lawn or biking.
2. Touching your thumb to your middle finger, travel back in time to a loving exchange with someone special, such as a devoted love letter, or a heart-expansive conversation.
3. Touching your thumb to your ring finger, try to recollect the most caring gesture you ever received. Take this opportunity to truly accept this gift.
4. Touching your thumb to your little finger, travel back in time to the most magnificent place that you've ever seen or dreamed about. Take a moment to absorb all the beauty that surrounds you.

This five-finger relaxation is your ticket to building inner strength, harmony and a sense of care.
